

AANLS Web Project: Neo-Latin in the Classroom

Guidelines, Suggestions, and Template for Lesson Plans

(For precedents, please see <http://www.arts.yorku.ca/aanls/classroom/lessons.html>)

Updated December 20, 2009

Title of Lesson:

Author of Lesson, affiliation, e-mail:

Date:

License to Use: The License to Use allows users to download and reproduce the Lesson Plans for non-commercial, non-internet classroom use only. The authors of the Lesson Plans retain all copyrights and moral rights in the Lesson Plans. The American Association for Neo-Latin Studies and its officers and Executive Council members are not responsible for the content, use or misuse of the Lesson Plans.

Historical Context: century, decade, reign, e.g.

Full Texts Online: URL if available

Level: Advanced level high students in high school; intermediate/advanced level students in college, e.g., or other

Focus and Appeal:

Learning Objectives:

Lesson Includes: brief list

Background: to author, text, period

Further Reading:

Text:

Lexicon/Glossary:

Notes: grammar, style, historical, etc.

English Translation:

Focus Questions:

Suggested Answers to Focus Questions:

For further information, please contact any of the editors of this AANLS Project:

Angela Fritsen (afritsen@juno.com)

Diane Johnson (diane.johnson@wwu.edu)

Anne-Marie Lewis (amlewis@yorku.ca)